

PRIVATE PHILANTHROPY: ALTERNATIVE [OR COMPLEMENTARY] STRUCTURES

February 8, 2024

Effie Babb, Hillspire, LLC - Menlo Park, CA
Maura L. Whelan, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP - New York, NY

1

AGENDA

2

- Introduction and Objectives
- Private Philanthropic Structures
- Practical Examples

3

INTRODUCTION AND OBJECTIVES

4

Introduction

- Historically, private philanthropy has generally been conducted through direct giving or private foundations
- Increasingly, philanthropists make use of alternative and complementary complex structures

5

Objectives

- Identify possible structures for private philanthropy and their comparative advantages and disadvantages
- Understand how different structures may interact or be deployed to achieve philanthropic initiatives
- Consider how to structure philanthropic support for specific example initiatives

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Private Philanthropy: Alternative [or Complementary] Structures

Also available as part of the eCourse

2024 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the

41st Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session

"Private Philanthropy: Alternative [or Complementary] Structures"