Issues in Health Law

Presiding Officer:

Yvonne K. Puig, Norton Rose Fulbright - Austin, TX

7:00 pm 1.00 hr	The More Stark and AKS Change, The More They Stay the Same Despite recent efforts by CMS and the OIG to modernize their respective regulations interpreting the Physician Self-Referral Law (aka, the Stark Law) and the federal Anti-Kickback Statute, careful attention is still required to avoid administrative, civil, and criminal penalties arising from these laws. This session provides an update on the Stark and Anti-Kickback landscape, including changes to the Self-Referral Disclosure Protocol, notable enforcement actions, recent advisory opinions, and litigation involving the OIG's interpretation of the Anti-Kickback Statute. Darby C. Allen, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP - Seattle, WA

The End of the Public Health Emergency: Advance Planning for Telehealth Services

Telehealth took a major leap forward with the flexibilities and waivers associated with the COVID-19 public health emergency. With the PHE ending this year, we look at how providers can plan to transition through the end of the PHE and make telehealth a sustainable and permanent feature of their business.
