LUNCHEON PRESENTATION

12:00 pm 0.75 hr	Update from the IRS Office of Chief Counsel  The past 12 months have presented unprecedented challenges for the Office of Chief Counsel and the IRS in general. Substantial progress was being made toward completion of all major guidance projects implementing the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act when the COVID-19 pandemic hit and the IRS was enlisted to assist in delivering significant aspects of the economic relief enacted by Congress. The Chief Counsel provides an update on the progress that has been made on both of these fronts.  Michael J. Desmond, Internal Revenue Service - Washington, DC

12:45 pm	5-Minute Break
12:50 pm 1.00 hr	Multistate Tax Update: Accidental Nexus, COVID-19, Texas Economic Nexus, Internet Sales, and Digital Goods The expansion of remote workers during the public health crisis has created significant multistate tax issues for businesses with employees or other representatives who are remotely working from out-of-state either because they live in a different state from where they work, they got “stuck” traveling out-of-state, or some other reason. Some state taxing authorities have offered “temporary” nexus exceptions, but others are reviewing matters on a case-by-case basis, creating additional uncertainty. An uptick in internet sales and sales of digital goods combined the expansion of economic nexus standards has caused many states to take another look at the tax implications of those transactions. Learn about these multistate updates and Texas-specific updates related to economic nexus standards and local tax sourcing of Internet sales and digital goods. Christina A. Mondrik, Mondrik &amp; Associates - Austin, TX
1:50 pm	5-Minute Break
1:55 pm 1.00 hr	Stranded: Tax Consequences for Nonresidents and Corporations from the Global Pandemic COVID travel restrictions have created numerous concerns for cross border employees and their employers including residency status of individuals, residence and tax jurisdiction of the employer entities, permanent establishment and sourcing issues. Andrius R. Kontrimas, Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP - Houston, TX
2:55 pm	5-Minute Break
3:00 pm 1.00 hr	New Carried Interest Regulations After a long wait, the IRS has finally published the Section 1061 Carried Interest Regulations implementing the 2018 three-year holding period required for long-term capital gain treatment. This will be of interests to funds and promoted joint ventures. Learn the big picture rules and the details that matter for you. Steven Schneider, Baker &amp; McKenzie LLP - Washington, DC Brian O'Connor, Venable LLP - Washington, DC
