

2017 LIVE VIDEO WEBCAST Corporate Compliance Essentials (Part 5 and 6)

November 10, 2017 • Live Webcast

Friday Afternoon, Nov. 10, 2017

1:00 pm 1.50 hrs	Part 5: Internal Investigations This session explores best practices for conducting internal investigations—when your compliance program has an issue, hear how to address it in a way that best protects the company and various stakeholders. Ryan D. McConnell, Partner, R. McConnell Group PLLC - Houston, TX Jay G. Martin, Chief Compliance Officer and Associate General Counsel, Baker Hughes, a GE Company - Houston, TX Kristen Savelle, Rock Center for Corporate Governance at Stanford University - Stanford, CA Cara Viglucci, Vice President Global Investigations, Millicom International Services, LLC - Coral Gables, FL
2:30 pm	Break
3:00 pm 1.50 hrs	Part 6: Monitoring and Audit This session explores various aspects of monitoring a program, including auditing third parties. This session also includes a component on attorney-client privilege and defensive email writing. Ryan D. McConnell, Partner, R. McConnell Group PLLC - Houston, TX Jay G. Martin, Chief Compliance Officer and Associate General Counsel, Baker Hughes, a GE Company - Houston, TX Kristen Savelle, Rock Center for Corporate Governance at Stanford University - Stanford, CA Cara Viglucci, Vice President Global Investigations, Millicom International Services, LLC - Coral Gables, FL
4:30 pm	Adjourn