

You've Received a Grievance Or Sanctions Motion – What Now?

Scott Rothenberg,
Law Offices of Scott Rothenberg
Bellaire, Texas

University of Texas Law School
First Friday Ethics (May 2022)
May 6, 2022, 10:00 am to 11:00 am
Via Webcast

1

Mandatory Disclaimer:

I am a panel chair for the Harris County District 4-6 Grievance Committee, and a past Director of the State Bar of Texas. However, NOTHING that I say in this program is on behalf of any entity or organization in any manner whatsoever. Everything I say in this program is solely in my capacity as Texas attorney who has been licensed to practice law in the State of Texas for 36 years and has no findings of professional misconduct, legal malpractice, or sanctionable conduct, against him. But...

2

About 5 years ago.

Working away at desk.

Mail came.

Certified mail envelope from the State Bar of Texas.

Grievance from a client I had sued for a fee.

47 pages of misconduct allegations – SINGLE SPACED

Several thousand pages of exhibits.

3

Grievance ended with numbered paragraph 92:

“Rothenberg is a psychopath who is simply toxic to the integrity of the legal profession. I sincerely hope the Chief Disciplinary Counsel will do its job to discipline this monster.”

4

Devastated. Depressed. Frightened.
Embarrassed. Anxious. Angry. All at once.

“How will I be able to care for my family if I lose my law license?”

5

So when I tell you that I understand what lawyers who receive grievances are going through, I truly do because I have been there.

This program is intended to provide Texas
lawyers with practical common-sense advice about what to do or not do when they receive a grievance or are the subject of a motion for sanctions in court.

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: You've Received a Grievance or Sanctions Motion - What Now?

Also available as part of the eCourse

First Friday Ethics \(May 2022\)

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2022 First Friday Ethics (May 2022) session

"You've Received a Grievance or Sanctions Motion - What Now?"