Topics

- Healthcare Industry - Significant State and Federal Policy Changes on the Horizon

Hospitals and Pharmacy Benefit Managers (PBMs) have been under increased scrutiny from policymakers in Austin and D.C.
- Other healthcare industries and policymakers on both sides of the aisles are targeting hospitals and PBMs for the perceived lack of transparency and the perceived role in increasing healthcare costs.
- These efforts could be significant changes to the marketplace — including potential price controls, government mandated contracts, and changes to operations.
