IT'S INTERSECTIONAL

Simply put, intersectionality refers to the fact that people have multiple social identities that may be simultaneously empowering and oppressing.

“It’s basically a lens, a prism, for seeing the way in which various forms of inequality often operate together and exacerbate each other.”

- Dr. Kimberle Crenshaw

Racism

Definition of racism (noun)

1 : a belief that race is a fundamental determinant of human traits and capacities and that racial differences produce an inherent superiority of a particular race

2 : the systemic oppression of a racial group to the social, economic, and political advantage of another

Institutionalized Discrimination

"Deferential treatment by race that is either perpetuated by organizations or codified into law."

Note: Institutionalized discrimination extends beyond race and can refer to unequal treatment of a group of people by organizations, laws or institutions based on other and often overlapping identities.
