Temporary Guardianships and Other Emergency Relief in a Guardianship Proceeding

Kathleen Tanner Beduze
Crain Caton & James, PC
August 5, 2021

1

The Current Realities

Photo by iStockphoto/Thinkstock

- In 2019, over 54M Americans over 65
  - approximately 16.5% of U.S. Population
- By 2034, estimated to be 77M Americans over 65
  - first time in U.S. history that older people (65 or older) outnumber children (under 18).
- In 2020, estimated 5.8M Americans over 65 living with Alzheimer's
  - approximately 1.8% of the U.S. population.
  - By 2050, number expected to nearly triple to approximately 14M.
- Up to 5M older Americans abused every year, with financial loss estimated to be atleast $36.5 billion
2

I Care A Lot.....[or does she?]

More than a Century of Solutions

The Basics

With great power comes great responsibility.

More than a Century of Solutions

What is a guardianship?

- A Court-supervised procedure where one person is granted legal authority to make personal or financial decisions for someone who can no longer make such decisions for himself or herself.

What is a guardianship proceeding?

- Any matter relating to:
    1. The appointment of a guardian of a minor or other incapacitated person;
    2. A guardianship or a substitute for a guardianship;
    3. A mental health action; and
    4. A management trust under Ch. 1301.

Title search: Temporary Guardianships and Other Emergency Relief in a Guardianship Proceeding (Replay)

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2022 Texas Guardianship Essentials (Replay) session
"Temporary Guardianships and Other Emergency Relief in a Guardianship Proceeding (Replay)"