What is an H-2B Visa

There are four uses for the H-2B Visa.

1. A One Time Occurrence

- Major Sporting Event
- Startup of a Company
- A One-Time Contract

2. Seasonal Need

- No Permanent Workers
- Tied to a specific Season

3. Peakload Need

- Need to supplement permanent workers
- Will not become part of regular business operation

4. Intermittent Need

- Perform services or labor for short periods occasionally

2

How Many Visas are available

- 66,000 visas available per year
 - Divided into two halves of the fiscal year
 - 33,000 available April – September
 - 33,000 available October – March
 - Congress can authorize additional visas. Fiscal years 2017 - 2022 additional visas were issued for returning workers and citizens of Haiti, El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras

LABOR CERTIFICATION Timing is Key

- July 1-3 for a Start Date of October 1.
- December 31 for a Start Date of April 1.
 - Regulations require ETA 9142B to be submitted 75-90 days before the start date of need-In practice DOL sets the deadline
 - However, before you can file a temporary labor certification, you need prevailing wage determination to submit ETA 9142B, so add a minimum of 30-60 additional days to start the process.
 - DOL processes ETA 9142Bs in groups – need to submit ETA 9142B at the 90 day mark (January 1-3)
 - Add time for State registration with the SWA

Exception

- §655.17 Emergency situations.
- (a) Waiver of time period. The CO may waive the time period(s) for filing an H-2B Registration and/or an Application for Temporary Employment Certification for employers that have good and substantial cause, provided that the CO has sufficient time to thoroughly test the domestic labor market on an expedited basis and to make a final determination as required by §655.50.
