Challenges

"Taking on a challenge is a lot like riding a horse, isn't it? If you're comfortable while you're doing it, you're probably doing it wrong."

Confidence

"I've never been embarrassed about having streaks in my drawers. You know, it's all part of growing up."

Collaboration

"I shouldn't bring an umbrella to a rainstorm."

Competence

"Heck, you could fill two internets with what I don't know about football."

Rule 1.01: Competent and Diligent Representation Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct

"A lawyer shall not accept or continue employment in a legal matter which the lawyer knows or should know is beyond the lawyer's competence, unless:

- (1) another lawyer who is competent to handle the matter is, with the prior informed consent of the client, associated in the matter; or
- (2) the advice or assistance of the lawyer is reasonably required in an emergency and the lawyer limits the advice and assistance to that which is reasonably necessary in the circumstances."

Rule 5.01: Responsibilities of a Partner or Supervisory Lawyer

Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct

A lawyer shall be subject to discipline because of another lawyer's violation of these rules of professional conduct if:

- (a) The lawyer is a partner or supervising lawyer and orders, encourages, or knowingly permits the conduct involved; or
- (b) The lawyer is a partner in the law firm in which the other lawyer practices, is the general counsel of a government agency's legal department in which the other lawyer is employed, or has direct supervisory authority over the other lawyer, and with knowledge of the other lawyer's violation of these rules knowingly fails to take reasonable remedial action to avoid or mitigate the consequences of the other lawyer's violation.

A decorative graphic in the bottom right corner of the slide. It consists of two hexagons, one orange and one light blue, connected by a thin white line that extends upwards and to the right.
