WEDNESDAY LUNCHEON SPONSOR

Miller & Chevalier | millerchevalier.com

Miller Chevalier & Chevalier has been widely recognized as one of the leading tax practices in the United States since its founding over 100 years ago as the first federal tax practice. Chambers USA has repeatedly ranked the firm as a national leader in tax controversy, corporate tax, and tax-related government relations. We earned that reputation by helping many of the world's leading companies with their most complex tax issues. We partner with our clients to provide integrated advice across the spectrum of federal taxation. The firm's tax policy practice works for our clients' interests before lawmakers and the Treasury Department. Our tax consulting practice handles the U.S. federal tax aspects of complex multinational transactions. Our tax controversy practice resolves clients' most difficult problems through IRS administrative processes. And our team of experienced tax litigators has litigated many of the most significant tax cases on record in courts across the country.
