

2023 First Friday Ethics (November 2023) November 3, 2023 • STUDIO WEBCAST

Friday Morning, Nov. 3, 2023

| | |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10:00 am 1.00 hr ethics | The Unruly Client (Replay) Ethical duties and practical advice for working with clients who don't see eye to eye with you. Paul Wingo, Hamilton Wingo, LLP - Dallas, TX |
| 11:00 am | 10-Minute Break |
| 11:10 am 1.00 hr ethics | Ethics in the Age of AI: Legal Practice Transformations (Replay) Gain insight into the ethical dilemmas that arise when utilizing ChatGPT and similar generative AI technologies in the legal field. Hear a discussion addressing the potential pitfalls and evolving responsibilities of Texas partnership attorneys in this new era. Robert R. Keatinge, Holland & Hart LLP - Denver, CO Kayla Landeros, Baylor Law School and West, Webb, Allbritton & Gentry, PC - Waco, TX |
| 12:10 pm | 10-Minute Break |
| 12:20 pm 1.00 hr ethics | Implicit Bias: What Your Brain is Up to When You're Not Paying Attention (Replay) Implicit bias refers to the attitudes or stereotypes that affect our thoughts, actions, and decisions in an unconscious manner. Because they occur without a person's awareness or control, they can have a significant and potentially negative impact on the day-to-day lives of lawyers and judges. Hon. Audrey Moorehead, Dallas County Criminal Court #3 - Dallas, TX Jonathan E. Smaby, Texas Center for Legal Ethics - Austin, TX |
| 1:20 pm | Presentations Conclude |